

Title	Covid 19 Biological Risks (workers)
Who is it for?	The course is aimed at all workers who are unable to work agile or who are forced to be physically present in the workplace, with the risk of exposure to sources of biological contamination.
Objektivies and purposes	The course prepares workers to avoid risks of contagion, contamination and in general to reduce exposure to biological risk, with particular attention to the new Covid19
Regulation of reference	Legislative Decree 81/08 and subsequent amendments DECREE-LAW 19 May 2020, n. 34
Requirements of admission	None
Duration and modality	The course lasts 2 hours and can be learned in e-learning mode with LMS (Learning Management System) technology, capable of monitoring and certifying the performance, traceability and completion of each user's educational activities.
Course schedule	DISCIPLINES AND CONTENTS
	General module E-learning course Course management Stop the pandemic We know the risks FAQ COVID 19 Mode of transmission Biological risk	Specific Form What is the coronavirus? Covid 19 Workers in safety Dialogue on the coronavirus (faq) How to wash your hands Women and children The risks for travelers Dressing and undressing with PPE How to protect yourself from contagion Protect yourself and others from the coronavirus Stress and burnout for healthcare professionals Ten behaviors to follow COVID 19 PDF What to do if in doubt Test

Rating	Verification of learning through tests, with multiple choice questions, included in the e-learning course.
Training certificate released	Certificate of attendance "COVID 19 biological risk" in pdf format